

PRESS RELEASE
July 1, 2019

CONTACT: Esther Gillette
650.378.2600

Wornick Jewish Day School Welcomes New Head of School Adam Eilath

Foster City, California - Wornick Jewish Day School is pleased to welcome its new Head of School, Adam Eilath, who started his position July 1, 2019.

Adam most recently served as the Dean of Jewish Studies and Director of Strategic Initiatives at the Jewish Community High School (JCHS) of the Bay in San Francisco. At JCHS, Adam led curricular changes and innovations that contributed to increased enrollment at the school. During his time at JCHS, Adam had a diverse set of responsibilities that also included teaching Jewish Studies and Humanities, coaching sports, and working in college advising. Prior to JCHS, Adam was a teacher at Kehillah Jewish High School in Palo Alto. Adam recently completed the Day School Leadership Training Institute (DSLTI) at the Jewish Theological Seminary, the national training program for Heads of Jewish Day Schools. Additionally, Adam was recently selected to participate in the prestigious Wexner Field Fellowship program. Only 15 Jewish professionals across North America are chosen for this three-year fellowship that seeks to strengthen leadership in the Jewish community.

“I am so thrilled to join the Wornick community,” says Adam Eilath. “Although I have known the school for many years, over the past few months I have had the opportunity to visit the school on numerous occasions and witness the tight knit and warm community first hand. Wornick is more than a school, it is a second home. It is an institution where learning and experiences that happen within the walls of the building amplify an entire community with meaning and hope.”

About Wornick Jewish Day School:

Wornick is an independent, co-educational program for learners in Transitional Kindergarten through 8th Grade. Located in Foster City, CA, Wornick is a pluralistic school open to all applicants, and is accredited by the California Association of Independent Schools (CAIS) and the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC).

###

800 Foster City Boulevard, Foster City, CA 94404
650.378.2600 :: www.wornickjds.org